

Dear Ms. Lien,

The contribution received from Omni Chiropractic was initially going to be refunded because the committee did not receive a response to the permissible funds letter the committee sent to the contributor. However, the committee received a response to the permissible funds letter indicating that the contributor is a sole proprietorship. We updated Schedule A to reflect Nelson W. Vetanze as the contributor.
